The county CCS program will determine if CCS children meet the criteria to be in the demonstration project based on parents’ non-overlapping defined zip codes.

The information in it can indicate whether you are at risk for some conditions and diseases and whether you should get earlier or additional testing.